The bumblebee is the ultimate symbol of determination in Mary Kay. Although the principles of aerodynamics suggest the bumblebee cannot fly ~its wings are too weak and its body too heavy ~ the bumblebee , not knowing this, flies anyway! This is to remind you that you can do anything you set your mind to. If someone suggest that something can't be done, the bumblebee is your inspiration to do it anyway! Beelieve in yourself. Whatever you mind can conceive and believe, you can achieve!
